LOSS BY FIRE.

Mr. J. D. H. Kinard, of the Bachman Chapel Section, Suffers Another Serious Misfortune.

Mr. John D. H. Kinard, of the Bachman Chapel section of the county, suffered another in a long list of severe misfortunes during a year, on Tuesday night, when his stable and barn, containing a quantity of rough food, was burned. The fire occurred early in the night and was discovered by Mr. W. W. Kinard, who lives nearby, and who gave the alarm just in time for Mr. Kinard to save his only mule. As soon as the alarm was given a number of neighbors went to the scene and by hard work succeeded in saving the adjoining buildings.

It is supposed the fire on Tuesday night was caused by rats carrying matches in shucks and wheat straw.

Last Christmas day Mr. Kinard's dwelling, with almost the entire contents, was burned. Only about two months ago his eldest son, aged about eleven years, was smothered to death in a pile of cotton.

Mr. Kinard has the sympathy of the entire community in his last loss, as he had in his former misfortunes.

A BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE.

The Brilliant Nuptials of Mr. P. E. Scott and Miss Mary Thompson on Wednesday Evening.

In the presence of a brilliant assemblage of relatives and friends Mr. Patrick Edward Scott and Miss Mary Adelaide Thompson, both of the city, were married at 7:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, at the residence of Chief Justice Y. J. Pope, by Bishop Northrop, of Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left immediately after the marriage for a bridal tour to Palm Beach, Fla., and other points.

Mr. Scott is a native of Indiana but came to Newberry as a young man to make his home with his uncle, the late Mr. Edward A. Scott. He is a member of the firm of Purcell & Scott, one of the largest and most successful mercantile establishments in the city. The bride is the only daughter of the late Dr. John R. Thompson, who for many years was a prominent and most successful dentist here.

The handsome residence of Chief Justice Pope was beautifully and tastefully decorated for the happy occasion. The large parlor and dining room and hall were thrown together. The decorations were appropriate to the event and to the season. Stately palms and graceful ferns were banked in large mounds, and smilax, bamboo and holly were draped and wreathed and festooned, making the large room a bower of loveliness. The altar was made of banks of ferns and palms and was lighted with candles. Suspended from the centre of the ceiling in the dining room was a bunch of mistletoe from which white ribbons, wound about with smilax, were extended to each corner of the table. In the centre of the table was a mound of white carnations and smilax. Numerous candles in glass and silver candelabra cast a brilliant glow upon the beautiful scene.

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Dr. T. E. Moore, of Columbia. The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Payne, of Wilmington, N. C. The groom entered with his best man, Mr. J. S. Renwick. Standing before the altar of flowers the bride and groom were united with the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Roman Catholic Church, performed by Bishop Northrop.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. R. H. Welch, assisted by Misses Susie Summer and Carrie Pool on the violin.

The bride was lovely in a white chiffon over satin with real lace bertha. She carried lilies of the valley.

Miss Payne, the maid of honor, was beautiful in a lovely creation of white organdie. She carried pale pink carnations.

After the ceremony an elegant dinner was served.

The favors were gold stick pins with pearl centres.

Those present were: Chief Justice and Mrs. Y. J. Pope; Bishop Northrop, of Charleston; Miss Elizabeth Payne, of Wilmington, N. C.; Miss Neville Pope; Dr. and Mrs. T. T. Moore, of Columbia; Dr. T. T. The Newberry German Club.

The Newberry German Club held a meeting on Tuesday night and decided to give two dances during the Christmas holidays, the first on the night of the 28th and the second on the night of the first of January, 1904.

Mr. G. F. Wearn tendered to the club his resignation as president, which the club, by a unanimous vote, refused to accept, and Mr. Wearn, the first and only president of the club, was continued in office.

Mr. Wearn has accepted a position as traveling salesman for one of the leading clothing houses of the country and will go on the road about the first of January. It was for this reason that he offered his resignation. The club, however, hoped to have him with it at many of its dances and it was the unanimous wish of the members that he continue in office.

First Cost Not the Cheapest.

The first cost of an article does not necessarily determine its cheapness. For instance, a sack of "Clifton" flour may cost you a little more than other so-called patent flours, but it will be cheaper to you in the end. Why? Because it will not only make more bread to the sack, but will take less lard and soda to make it. Order a sack of "Clifton" and make a test for yourself. It will prove the truth of this statement.

Get the Best For the Asking. No

When you order a sack of patent flours from your grocer, do not tell him you want a sack of "good flour" tell him to send you a sack of "Clifton" because "Clifton" is the best. Every sack is sold with this guarantee and if it does not prove as represented your money will be refunded. "Clifton" is an all-round flour, and is as good as cake and pastry as light rolls or fruit.
